Premier Mtshweni-Tsipane to officiate at the opening of the newly constructed offices of the Mathibela Traditional Council

Mpumalanga Premier Refilwe Mtshweni-Tsipane will next week officiate at the opening of the newly constructed offices of the Mathibela Traditional Council in Oakley, Bushbuckridge. The offices provide a dedicated suitable and modern space for the traditional council and the local community in their day-to-day engagements.

The unveiling of the offices marks the fulfilment of the commitment made by the Mpumalanga Provincial Government to continuously support the institution of traditional leadership.

Mtshweni-Tsipane has already expressed her gratitude with the new offices, describing it as an investment in infrastructure. She says the significant step is bearing positive results in supporting the traditional leadership.

"I am delighted to see the completion of the Mathibela Traditional Council offices. The new facility will play a crucial role in promoting cultural heritage and bolster the working relationship between traditional leadership and local communities," says Premier Mtshweni-Tsipane.

The details of the event are as follows:

Date: Tuesday, 14 May 2024
Time: 10h00
Venue: Mathibela Traditional Council
Oakley, Bushbuckridge Local Municipality
