PREMIER MTSHWENI-TSIPANE TO OFFICIALLY OPEN STATE-OF-THE-ART BETHAL HOSPITAL IN BETHAL

Mpumalanga Premier Ms Refilwe Mtshweni-Tsipane will officially open a new state-of-the-art hospital in Bethal. The hospital is equipped with high-technology facilities and will provide the much-needed health services to communities in areas, amongst others, Trichardt, Embalenhle, Kriel, Davon, Morgenzon and Charl Cilliers.

Mtshweni-Tsipane says the hospital signifies the commitment of the Provincial Government to provide communities with quality health care services within their vicinity. She says the construction of the hospital and various health facilities depict government's orientation of matching action with words, through the implementation of plans set out in the State of the Province's Address (SOPA).

The Premier says the Bethal hospital is key to government's efforts of reducing the number of infection cases and the mortality rate.

MEC Sasekani Manzini of Health, Executive Mayors and Health experts, are amongst the dignitaries to accompany the Premier during the official opening of the hospital.

Details of the function are as follow:
