MPUMALANGA PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT UNVEILS NEW EMERGENCY VEHICLES FOR FESTIVE SEASON

The Mpumalanga Premier, Mr. Mandla Ndlovu will unveil 30 new emergency vehicles as part of launching the contingency plan during the festive season in the province.

In celebrating the festive season most South Africans will be travelling to different destinations locally and outside the borders to enjoy the summer holidays with their families.

In managing any possibilities of emergency during this period, the Provincial Government led by Premier Ndlovu, will outline the plan to keep health services fully functional during the festive season holidays.

The new ambulances will significantly help by responding to medical emergencies through rendition of pre-hospital medical care, as well as transportation to appropriate health facilities.

The Premier will be accompanied by Health MEC, Ms. Sasekani Manzini, among other dignitaries.

The function is arranged as follows:

Date: Monday, 09 December 2024

Time: 8h30

Venue: Mbombela Stadium, City of Mbombela Municipality

Members of the media are invited. For confirmations, kindly contact Ms. Phumla Mokoena on 060 998 8781 or Mokoenapi@mpg.gov.za (Office of the Premier) or Mr. Chris Nobela on 0828879465 (Department of Health) or Christophern@mpuhealth.gov.za
