Premier Ndlovu convenes the Mpumalanga Provincial AIDS Council Sitting

The Mpumalanga Premier, Mr Mandla Ndlovu will this Friday convene the Provincial Aids Council sitting to deliberate on the province's progress and challenges in the fight against HIV, TB and STIs.

The Mpumalanga Provincial AIDS Council (MPAC) sittings bring together a variety of key stakeholders from the provincial government departments, civil society and the private sector forum to assess the implementation of the strategies, identify challenges and come with possible solutions in response to the fight against the HIV, TB and STIs.

The MPAC meetings are co-chaired with the civil society as a strategy to enhance the collaboration efforts in the fight against the scourge.

Similar sittings took place recently at the level of the Districts, and were chaired by the District Executive Mayors. The MPAC Sitting will take place as follows:

Date: Friday, 04 July 2025
Time: 10h00
Venue: Ehlanzeni District Municipality, Mbombela

Members of the media wishing to attend the sitting are kindly requested to send confirmation to Ms Phumla Mokoena from the Office of the Premier on 060 998 8781.
