Community Nutrition and Development Centres to be launched on the commemoration International Day for the Eradication of Poverty

The critically ill, child headed households and others who cannot do it for themselves will now benefit from the Community Nutrition and Development Centres (CNDs) to be launched in Mpumalanga.

The MEC for Social Development Ms. Nomsa Mtsweni will lead the Department of Social Development, SASSA, NDA joined by other Government Departments in implementing ways of doing away with poverty facing people in the Province.

This will be part of the commemoration of the International Day for the Eradication of Poverty which is annually celebrated on 17 October. This year the Department of Social Development will commemorate this day on the 21st of October under the theme “Working together towards a world without discrimination: Building on the experience and knowledge of people in extreme poverty”.

A number of households in the Naas area have been identified and profiled to establish their needs and identify meaningful ways through which Government will intervene to make their standard of living better.

Members of the media are invited to an event scheduled as follows;

Date: 21 October 2014, Tuesday
Time: 10h45
Venue: Tholulwazi Drop-in Centre in Naas, Nkomazi Local Municipality

End.
