Mpumalanga Premier to officially open provincial traffic training college

Mpumalanga Premier David Mabuza will tomorrow officially open the newly built Mpumalanga Traffic Training College.

The state of the art college situated in Mkhuhlu near the Kruger National Park is expected to accommodate 160 learners for now and will also offer law enforcement courses such as advance driving and firearm handling. The college is also expected to boost the province economically while creating job opportunities.

The event will take place as follows:

Date: 14 December 2016

Venue: Mkhuhlu [Mpumalanga Traffic Training College]

Time: 12:00

The media is invited.
