Premier Ndlovu to handover school uniform in Zwelisha

The Mpumalanga Premier, Mr Mandla Ndlovu will reaffirm his unwavering commitment to quality education and learner support by visiting Sabane Secondary School in Zwelisha within Mbombela to hand over essential school uniform to learners. The Premier will monitor the re-opening of the school, as this week marks the start of the third term in Mpumalanga.

The Premier's hand over of the uniforms to deserving learners, as a heartwarming initiative which forms part of his ongoing efforts to donate to the learners, from underprivileged background. He says this initiative will ensure that the learners get much-deserved support to uphold their dignity and to propel them to attend classes comfortably like their peers.

Premier Ndlovu will be accompanied by the MEC of Education, Ms Lindi Masina during the ceremony.

Details of the handover ceremony are as follows;

Date: Wednesday, 23 July 2025

Time: 07h00

Venue: Sabane Secondary School, Zwelisha Trust, Mbombela

Members of the media wishing to attend the ceremony are requested to send confirmation to Ms Phumla Mokoena (Office of the Premier) on 060 998 8781.
