- 5. Functions of Office.—(1) The Office shall—
 - (a) receive and investigate complaints of alleged unfair business practices which have been lodged with the Office as contemplated in section 6, and dispose of such complaints in terms of this Act; and
 - (b) perform the other functions assigned to it by or under this Act.
- (2) (a) The Office shall as practicable after 31 December in each year submit to the responsible Member a report on its functions during the year ending on that date.
- (b) The responsible Member shall table a copy of the annual report submitted in terms of subsection (2) (a) in the Provincial Legislature within 14 days after its receipt if the Provincial Legislature is then sitting or, if the Provincial Legislature is not then sitting, within 14 days after the commencement of its next ensuing ordinary sitting.
- 6. Lodging of complaints with Office.—(1) Any person may lodge a complaint with the Office regarding an alleged unfair business practice.
- (2) A complaint contemplated in subsection (1) which is not in writing shall be reduced to writing by the Office.
- 7. Investigations of Office.—(1) The Office may, where no complaint has been lodged, institute such investigation as may be necessary into—
 - (a) any unfair business practice which there is reason to suspect exists or may come into existence; or
 - (b) any business practice or type of business practice, in general or in relation to a particular commodity or investment or any kind of commodity or investment or a particular business or any class or type of business or a particular area, and which there is reason to suspect is commonly applied for the purposes of or in connection with the creation or maintenance of unfair business practices.
- (2) If the responsible Member refers a matter contemplated in sub section (1) to the Office, the Office shall conduct an investigation into that matter.
- (3) The Office may, by notice in the Provincial Gazette, make known any investigation which it is conducting, and that any person may within a period specified in the notice make written representations regarding the investigation to the Office.
- (4) The Office may, for the purposes of an investigation, have regard to any investigation, finding or measure taken by the Business Practices Committee established by section 2 of the Harmful Business Practices Act, 1988 (Act No. 71 of 1988), or the Minister of Trade and Industry in terms of that Act, or by any other competent authority, including an authority in another province.
- (5) If the Consumer Protector is of the opinion that a complaint may more appropriately be dealt with by another competent authority, he or she may at any time refer any investigation or aspect thereof to such other authority, including an authority in another province: Provided that the Office may at any time resume the investigation in relation to that matter.
- 8. Summoning and questioning of persons and production of books and documents.—(1) For the purposes of an investigation, the Consumer Protector or a person in the service of the Office authorised by him or her may—
 - (a) summon any person who is believed to be able to furnish any information on the subject of the investigation or to have in his or her control any book, document or other object relating to that subject, to appear before a person in the service of the Office at a time and place specified in the summons, to be questioned or to produce that book, document or other object, and

- (b) question that person, under oath or affirmation administered by the Consumer Protector or another person in the service of the Office authorised by the Consumer Protector, and examine or retain for further information or for safe custody such a book, document or other object.
- (2) A summons referred to in subsection (1) (a) shall—
- (a) be in the prescribed form;
- (b) contain particulars of the matter in connection with which the person concerned is required to appear;
- (c) be signed by the Consumer Protector or another person in the service of the Office authorised by the Consumer Protector; and
- (d) be served in the prescribed manner.
- (3) A person appearing by virtue of subsection (1) (a)—
- (a) may be assisted at the investigation by any person of his or her choice; and
- (b) shall be entitled to the prescribed witness fees.
- (4) A person shall be guilty of an offence if he or she, having been summoned in terms of this section—
 - (a) fails without sufficient cause to attend at the time and place specified in the summons, or to remain in attendance until the conclusion of the proceedings or until he or she has been excused from further attendance;
 - (b) refuses to take an oath or make an affirmation;
 - (c) refuses to answer, or to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, any question lawfully put to him or her;
 - (d) fails to produce any book, document or object in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control, which he or she was required to produce; or
 - (e) makes a false statement to the Consumer Protector or other person in the service of the Office designated by the Consumer Protector, knowing such statement to be false or not knowing or believing it to be true.
- (5) A person who has been summoned to appear in terms of this section shall not be entitled to refuse to answer any question or to produce any book, document or object on the ground that he or she would thereby be exposed to a criminal charge: Provided that, to the extent that such answer, book, document or article does expose the person concerned to a criminal charge, no evidence thereof shall be admissible in any criminal proceedings against that person, except where that person stands trial on a charge contemplated in subsection (4) (c) to (e), or in section 319 (3) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1955 (Act No. 56 of 1955).
- 9. Investigating officers.—(1) The Consumer Protector may appoint persons in the service of the Office or any other suitable persons as investigating officers.
- (2) The Consumer Protector shall be deemed to have been appointed as an investigating officer under subsection (1).
- (3) An investigating officer who is not in the full-time service of the State shall be appointed on such conditions and at such remuneration as may be prescribed.
- (4) An investigating officer shall be provided with a certificate of appointment signed by or on behalf of the Consumer Protector and in which it is stated that he or she is an investigating officer appointed in terms of this Act.
- (5) An investigating officer shall, when performing any function in terms of this Act, have his or her certificate of appointment in his or her possession.

- 10. Search and seizure.—(1) In order to obtain any information required by the Office in relation to an investigation, an investigating officer may, subject to the provisions of this section, enter any premises on or in which any book, document or other object connected with that investigation is or is suspected to be, and may—
 - (a) inspect or search those premises, and there make such inquiries as may be necessary for the purpose of obtaining any such information;
 - (b) examine any object found on or in the premises which has or might have a bearing on the investigation in question, and request from the owner or person in charge of the premises or from any person in whose possession or charge that object is, information regarding that object;
 - (c) make copies of or extracts from any book or document found on or in the premises which has or might have a bearing on the investigation in question, and request from any person who is suspected of having the necessary information, an explanation of any entry therein;
 - (d) seize, against the issue of a receipt, anything on or in the premises which has or might have a bearing on the investigation in question, if the investigating officer needs to retain it for further examination or for safe custody.
- (2) Unless the owner or person in charge of the premises concerned has consented thereto in writing, an investigating officer shall enter premises and exercise any power contemplated in subsection (1), only under a search warrant, which may only be issued by the Consumer Affairs Court if it appears to that court from information given to the court on oath or solemn affirmation that there are reasonable grounds to suspect—
 - (a) that an unfair business practice exists or may come into existence; and
 - (b) that a book, document or other object which may afford evidence of such unfair business practice is on or in those premises.
 - (3) A search warrant contemplated in subsection (2) shall—
 - (a) authorise an investigating officer mentioned in the warrant to enter the premises identified in the warrant for the purpose of exercising any power contemplated in subsection (1);
 - (b) be executed by day, unless the court authorises the execution thereof by night; and
 - (c) be of force until it is executed, cancelled by the court, or a period of one month from the day of its issue expires, whichever occurs first.
- (4) An investigating officer executing a search warrant under this section shall, before such execution, upon demand by any person whose rights may be affected—
 - (a) show that person his or her certificate of appointment; and
 - (b) hand to that person a copy of the warrant.
- (5) A person from whose possession or charge a book or document has been taken under this section shall, as long as it is in the possession or charge of the investigating officer concerned or of the Office, be allowed on request to make copies thereof or to take extracts therefrom at any reasonable time at his or her own expense and under the supervision of that investigating officer or a person in the service of the Office.
 - (6) A person shall be guilty of an offence if he or she
- (a) obstructs or hinders an investigating officer in the performance of his or her functions in terms of this section; or
 - (b) after an enquiry having been made of him or her under subsection (1) (a), or having been requested for information or an explanation under subsection (1) (b) or (c)

- (i) refuses to answer, or to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, such enquiry or request for information; or
- (ii) gives an answer or information or an explanation which is false or misleading, knowing it to be false or misleading.
- (7) A person from whom information or an explanation has been requested in terms of this section shall not be entitled to refuse to answer any question or to produce any book, document or object on the ground that he or she would thereby be exposed to a criminal charge: Provided that, to the extent that such answer, book, document or article does expose the person concerned to a criminal charge, no evidence thereof shall be admissible in any criminal proceedings against that person, except where that person stands trial on a charge contemplated in subsection (6) (b).
- 11. Negotiation of arrangements to discontinue unfair business practice.—(1) The Office may negotiate and conclude an arrangement with any person for—
 - (a) the discontinuance of avoidance of an unfair business practice;
 - (b) the reimbursement, with interest, to affected consumers;
 - (c) the discontinuance or avoidance of any aspect of an unfair business practice; or
 - (d) any other matter relating to the unfair business practice.
 - (2) An arrangement—
 - (a) may be concluded at any time after the institution of an investigation, but before the making of a final order by court;
 - (b) shall be in writing and signed by the parties thereof; and
 - (c) shall be subject to confirmation by the court in accordance with section 21.
- 12. Institution of proceedings after completion of investigation.—(1) Upon completion of an investigation, the Consumer Protector may institute proceedings in the court of the area concerned—
 - (a) against the person alleged to be responsible for the unfair business practice in question; or
 - (b) generally, with a view to the prohibition of any business practice or type of business practice, in general or in relation to a particular area, and which is commonly applied for the purposes of or in connection with the creation or maintenance of unfair business practices.
- (2) If the Office decides not to institute proceedings, the Consumer Protector shall inform the complainant.
- 13. Establishment of Consumer Affairs Court.—(1) The responsible Member shall, by notice in the Provincial Gazette, establish one or more Consumer Affairs Courts for the Province.
 - (2) A court shall be established for an area defined in such notice.
 - (3) The responsible Member may, in like manner-
 - (a) vary any such area;
 - (b) withdraw such notice and abolish any such court
- (4) The seat or seats of a court shall be at such place or places as the responsible Member may from time to time determine in general or in relation to particular proceedings.
- 14. Appointment of Members of a court.—(1) Members of a court shall be appointed by the responsible Member in concurrence with the committee.—(2) 14.

- (2) A court shall consist of five persons; namely—

- (f) has at any time been removed from an office of trust on account of misconduct.
- (2) No person shall remain a member of the court if he or she fails to disclose an interest which would require him or her to be recused as contemplated in section 16 (3).
- 16. Constitution of court.—(1) Subject to subsection (4), the quorum of a court shall be three members.
- (2) Except where otherwise provided, a decision of the majority of members of a court present shall be the decision of the court.
- (3) A member of a court shall recuse himself or herself from proceedings on the grounds of any interest or association likely to affect his or her impartial consideration of the matter, or which is likely to be seen to do so.

- (4) If at any stage during the proceedings before a court-
- (a) the chairperson becomes incapable of acting or is absent, the proceedings shall begin aftesh;
- (b) any other member becomes incapable of acting or is absent, the proceedings shall, subject to subsection 1, continue before the remaining members, and
- (c) two or more other members become incapable of acting or are absent, the proceedings shall begin affect unless all the parties to the proceedings, subject to subsection 1, agree unconditionally in writing to accept the decision of the majority of remaining members.
- (5) In the event of any equality of votes in regard to any matter before the court, the Chairperson shall have a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberative vote.

17. Functions and powers of court.—(1) A court—

- (a) shall hear, consider and make a decision on any matter which is before it by virtue of proceedings envisaged by this Act;
- (b) may award costs, on a scale to be prescribed or in an amount determined by the court, against any person found to have conducted the unfair business practice concerned and who is found to have acted fraudulently or grossly unreasonably;
- (c) may generally deal with all matters necessary or incidental to the performance of its functions under this Act; and
- (d) shall exercise any other powers, and perform the functions assigned to it by this Act.
- (2) Process of a court shall run throughout the Province and orders of the court shall have force throughout the Province.
- (3) The responsible Member shall, subject to the laws governing the public service, appoint—
 - (a) a clerk of the court to perform the administrative work incidental to the functions of the court; and
 - (b) such other persons to assist the clerk of the court as may be necessary.
- 18. Proceedings of court.—(1) Proceedings before the court shall, except in cases contemplated in sections 12 and 20, be initiated by summons in the prescribed form which shall be served on the person concerned in any manner as may be prescribed, which may include service outside the Province.
- (2) All proceedings of the court shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3), be open to the public.
- (3) A court may direct that the public or any member thereof may not attend any proceedings of the court or any portion thereof, if this is justified in the interests of—
 - (a) the conduct of the proceedings or the consideration of the matter in question; or
 - (b) the protection of the privacy of any person alleged to be involved in the unfair business practice in question or the confidentiality of any information relating to that person.
- (4) Proceedings before a court shall be prosecuted by the Office, who may be represented or assisted by an advocate, attorney, or any other person approved by the responsible Member.
- (5) Any person who may be adversely affected by the proceedings shall be entitled to participate in the proceedings.

- : (6) Any person against whom proceedings are instituted or who may be adversely affected by such proceedings may appear in person or be represented or assisted by an advocate, attorney or any other person.
 - (7) A court shall keep record of its proceedings.
- 19. Summoning of witnesses and production of documents.—(1) For the purpose of ascertaining any matter relating to proceedings before a court, a court may—
 - (a) by summons addressed to any person, including the person alleged to have performed the unfair business practice, in the prescribed form under the hand of the clerk of the court, and served in the prescribed mahner, require such person to appear before the court at a time and place specified in such summons, to give evidence and to produce any book, document or object in the possession or custody or under the control of such person and which may be reasonably necessary, material and relevant in connection with those proceedings;
 - (b) require such person to take an oath or make an affirmation; and
 - (c) question such person and examine any book, document or object which he or she has been required to produce.
- (2) A person shall be guilty of an offence if he or she, having been summoned in terms of this section—
 - (a) fails without sufficient cause to attend at the time and place specified in the summons, or to remain in attendance until the conclusion of the proceedings or until he or she has been excused by the court from further attendance;
 - (b) refuses to take that oath or make an affirmation;
 - (c) refuses to answer, or to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of; his or her knowledge and belief, any question lawfully put to him or her;
 - (d) fails to produce any book, document or object in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control, which he or she was required to produce; or
 - (e) makes a false statement before the court knowing such statement to be false or not knowing or believing it to be true.
- (3) A person who has been summoned to appear in terms of this section shall not be entitled to refuse to answer any question or to produce any book, document or object on the ground that he or she would thereby be exposed to a criminal charge: Provided that, to the extent that such answer, book, document or article does expose the person concerned to a criminal charge, no evidence thereof shall be admissible in any criminal proceedings against that person, except where that person stands trial on a charge contemplated in subsection (2) (c) to (e), or in section 319 (3) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1955 (Act No. 56 of 1955).
- (4) A person who has attended the proceedings of the court as a witness shall be entitled to the prescribed witness fee.
- 20. Urgent temporary orders.—(1) A court may, if it is satisfied from information placed before it by the Office that circumstances relating to a particular matter which is the subject of an investigation render that matter urgent in that irreparable prejudice would be caused to a consumer or any group or class of consumers if the matter were only to be dealt with by the court at proceedings in due course, issue a temporary order—
 - (a) prohibiting any person mentioned in the order from performing any act connected with the unfair business practice in question;
 - attaching any money or other property or assets, whether corporeal or incorporeal, movable or immovable, held by any person;
 - (c) making any other order that may be necessary to prevent the prejudice in question; or

COMMERCIAL LAW

- (d) authorising any investigating officer or person in the service of the Office to take any action specified in the order.
- (2) A temporary order contemplated in subsection (1)—
- (a) may be amended or withdrawn by the court on application by the Office or by a person affected thereby;
- (b) shall remain in force for such period or extended period as the court may from time to time determine; and
- (c) shall, unless withdrawn or lapsed, remain in force until the proceedings are finalised.
- (3) An order in terms of subsection (1), and any amendment, withdrawal or extension thereof shall, where the court so directs, be made known by notice in the Provincial Gazette and in such other media as the court may deem appropriate.
- 21. Confirmation of arrangements negotiated by Office.—(1) The Office may apply to a court for confirmation of an arrangement concluded in terms of section 11.
- (2) The court may, with due consideration of the interests of affected consumers, issue an order—
 - (a) confirming the arrangement;
 - (b) confirming the arrangement with such modifications as may be agreed to by the person concerned, and subject to such conditions as may be agreed to by that person, as the court may deem fit; or
 - (c) setting aside that arrangement if, after the persons involved in the agreement have been given an opportunity to be heard, it is satisfied that the arrangement will not ensure the discontinuance or avoidance of the unfair business practice in question.
- (3) An order in terms of subsection (2) shall be published in the Provincial Gazette and shall thereupon have the same effect as an order in terms of section 22.
- 22. Order by court prohibiting unfair business practice.—(1) If a court is satisfied that an unfair business practice exists or may come into existence, and has not confirmed an arrangement as contemplated in section 21 (1) (a), the court may issue such order as may be necessary to ensure the discontinuance or prevention of the unfair business practice in question, and such order may, without prejudice to the generality of the aforegoing, direct
 - any person concerned in the unfair business practice to take such action, including steps for the dissolution of any body, corporate or non-corporate, or the severance of any connection or form of association between two or more persons, including such bodies, as may be necessary to ensure the discontinuance or prevention of the unfair business practice; or
 - (b) any person who is or was party to an agreement, understanding or commission, or who uses or has used any advertising or type of advertising, or applies or applied a scheme, practice or method of trading including any method or marking or distribution, or commits or has committed an act, or brings or has brought about a situation, or has or had any interest in a business or type of business or derives or derived any income from a business or type of business which is connected with the said unfair business practice and which may be specified in the order, to—
 - (i) terminate or cease to be a party to that agreement, understanding or omis-
 - (ii) refrain from using the advertising or type of advertising;
 - (iii) refrain from applying that scheme, practice or method of trading;
 - (iv) cease to commit that act or to bring about that situation;

- (v) cease to have any interest in that business or type of business or to derive any income therefrom;
- (vi) refrain from at any time-
 - (aa) becoming a party to any agreement, understanding or omission;
 - (bb) using any type of advertising,
 - (cc) applying any scheme, practice or method of trading; or
 - (dd) committing any act or bringing about any situation, of a nature specified in the order and which the court is satisfied is likely to be applied for the purposes of or in connection with the creation or maintenance of any unfair business practice; or
- (vii) refrain from at any time obtaining any interest in or deriving any income from a business or type of business specified in the order.
- (2) If the court finds that money was accepted from consumers in the course of an unfair basiness practice, and it is necessary to limit or prevent financial loss to those consumers, the court may—
 - (a) order any person to repay such money to the affect consumers, together with interest at the prescribed rate;
 - (b) appoint a curator to perform the functions set out in section 23;
 - (c) give directions regarding any security which the curator shall furnish for the proper performance of his or her functions;
 - (d) determine the powers and functions of the curator; and
 - (e) give directions concerning the performance of the functions of the curator, or the management of the affairs of the person concerned, or any other matter incidental thereto, as may be deemed necessary.
- (3) Notwithstanding that the monies to be recovered have been received by the person involved in the unfair business practice in terms of an order of a court of law, if the court is of the opinion that such an order has the effect of enforcing an unfair business practice, it may make such order as may be necessary to restore the consumer to the position he or she would have been in if no such unfair business practice had taken place.
- (4) At any time after the court has granted an order in terms of this section, the court may approve of the correction of an omission or error the clarification of any provision in the order if such correction or clarification is necessary, and any such correction or clarification shall be made known by notice in the Provincial Gazette.
 - (5) An order of the court in terms of subsection (1)—
 - (a) shall be made known by notice in the Provincial Gazette; and
 - -(b) may be made known in any other manner, including a notice in the print or electronic media.
- 23. Functions of curator appointed by the court.—(1) A curator appointed under section 22 (2) may, to the extent authorised by a court and subject to any conditions imposed by it—
 - (a) realise such assets of the person involved in the unfair business practice in question which are necessary for the reimbursement of the consumers concerned, and distribute them among the said consumers;
 - (b) take control of and manage the whole or any part of the business of such a person, in which event the management of the business or affairs of the person involved in the unfair business practice shall vest in the curator, subject to the supervision of the court, and any other person vested with the management of the affairs of that person shall be divested thereof:

- 24. Declaration of certain business practices to be unlawful.—(1) If a court pursuant to proceedings instituted in the court in terms of this Act, is satisfied that it is in the public interest that any particular business practice or type of business practice which was the subject of the proceedings in question should be declared to be unlawful, it may—
 - (a) declare to be unlawful the business practice or type of business practice concerned, either generally or in respect of a particular area, depending upon whether the investigation was of a general nature or was undertaken in relation to a particular area;
 - (b) declare any agreement, accord or undertaking, or terms thereof to be void;
 - (c) prohibit any person from entering into or being or continuing to be a party to an agreement, arrangement or understanding, or from using advertising, or from applying a scheme, practice or method of trading, or from committing an act or from bringing about a situation which was the subject of the proceeds, either wholly or to the extent specified by the court, or subject to a condition or exemption so specified of to an exemption contemplated in subsection (3); and
 - (d) regulate any business practice or type of business practice which was the subject of the proceedings, by determining conditions or requirements which must be complied with in respect thereof.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) may at any time, on application by the Consumer Protector after further investigation by the Office, be withdrawn by the court or be amended by it in such manner as may be fitting.
- (3) The court may, on application by any person and after hearing the Consumer Protector, and any other interested person, grant exemption from a provision, condition or requirement contemplated in subsection (1), to such extent and for such period and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the exemption.
- (4) The provisions of section 22 (2) shall mutatis mutandis apply in relation to an order, withdrawal, amendment or exemption contemplated in this section.
- (5) The person or body seeking any order in terms of subsection (2) or (3) shall make their intention known by notice in the Provincial Gazette, and interested persons shall be invited to make objections to any such order.
- 25. Appeal.—There shall be an appeal from any decision of the court to the special court established in terms of section 13 of the Harmful Business Practices Act, 1988 (Act No. 71 of 1988).
- 26. Giving of notice to competent authorities of unfair business practices and offences.—(1) The Consumer Protector shall, if there is reason to suspect that an unfair business practice which is or was the subject of an investigation by the Office, exists or may come into existence elsewhere in the Republic than in the Province, furnish the Business Practices Committee established by section 2 of the Harmful Business Practices Act, 1988 (Act No. 71 of 1988), and any competent authority in the province concerned, with particulars of the business practice in question and any relevant information relating thereto which became known in the course of investigations by the Office or of proceedings before the court.
- (2) The Consumer Protector shall, if there is reason at any time during or after the completion of an investigation to suspect that there had been or is being committed, or that an attempt has been or is being made to commit—
 - (a) an offence, notify the attorney-general concerned accordingly; and
 - (b) a serious economic offence as defined in the Investigation of Serious Economic Offences Act, 1991 (Act No. 117 of 1991), lay the matter in question before the Director of the Office for Serious Economic Offences in the manner provided in Section 4 of that Act.

- 27. Confidentiality.—No investigating officer, person in the service of the Office, member of a court, curator or person contemplated by section 4 (2) or 17 (3) shall disclose any information acquired by him or her in the exercise or performance of any powers or functions in terms of this Act, except—
 - (a) in so far as may be necessary for the purpose of the due and proper exercise or performance of any power, function or duty in terms of this Act; or
 - (b) on the order of the court of law.
- 28. Limitation of liability.—No person, including the State, shall be liable in respect of anything done in good faith under this Act.
- 29. Regulations.—(1) The responsible Member shall, with the concurrence of the committee and after consultation with the chairperson of the Court, if appointed, make regulations relating to—
 - (a) the practice and proceedings of the court;
 - (b) any matter which in terms of this Act is required or permitted to be prescribed;
 and
 - (c) in general, any matter which is considered necessary or expedient to be prescribed for achieving the objects of this Act.
- (2) The responsible Member shall, not less than one month before any regulation is made, cause the text of such regulation to be published in the Provincial Gazette together with a notice declaring his or her intention to make that regulation, and inviting interested persons to furnish any comments thereon or any representations which they may wish to make in regard thereto.
- (3) The provisions of subsection (2) shall not apply in respect of any regulation which after the provisions of that subsection have been complied with, has been amended by the responsible Member after consultation with the chairperson of the court, if appointed, in consequence of comments or representations received by the board in pursuance of such compliance.
- 30. Offences in relation to prohibited business practices.—Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with an order of the court which has been made known by notice in the Provincial Gazette shall be guilty of an offence.
- 31. Penalties.—Any person who is convicted of an offence in terms of this Act shall be liable, in the case of an offence referred to in—
 - (a) section 30, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or to both such fine and such imprisonment; and
 - (b) any other provision of this Act, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
- 32. Application.—This Act shall bind the State, except in so far as criminal liability is concerned.
- 33. Waiver of benefits.—Any agreement or contractual term purporting to exclude the provisions of this Act or to limit the application thereof shall be void.
- 34. Civil remedies.—(1) No provision of this Act shall be construed as depriving any person of any civil remedy.

- (2) If any person seeks to enforce or rely on an alleged unfair business practice in proceedings before any other civil court may, on the application of any party to those proceedings, stay those proceedings in the interests of justice until such time as the court has come to a decision in terms of this Act.
- 35. Amendment of laws.—The laws referred to in Schedule 1, in so far as they are in force in any part of the Province, are hereby amended to the extent in the third column of that Schedule.
- 36. Repeal of laws.—(1) The laws referred to in Schedule 2, in so far as they are in force in any part of the Province, are hereby repealed.
- (2) Any right conferred by section 21 (1) (b) of the Bophuthatswana Consumer Affairs Act, 1984 (Act No. 34 of 1984), to cancel a contract that was not registered in accordance with section 23 of that Act and which right has not been exercised by the date of commencement of the Act, shall lapse at such commencement, and any contract concerned shall not be terminated merely by reason that it had not been so registered.
- 37. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act shall be called the Mpumalanga Consumer Affairs Act, 1998, and shall come into operation on a date fixed by the Premier by proclamation in the Provincial Gazette.
 - (2) Different dates may be so fixed in respect of different sections of this Act.
